BARRY BANNETT NAMED TO STATEWIDE BOARD

For Immediate Release – April 1, 2005

Cherry Hill, NJ -- Barry Bennett, AIA, founder and chairman of The Bennett Group, Ltd., has been named to the Board of the Pennsylvania Chapter of the Design-Build Institute of America (DBIA), which includes Pennsylvania, Delaware, and the southern half of New Jersey.

The DBIA is a membership organization founded in 1993 to advocate and advance single source project delivery within the design and construction community. The design-build method of project delivery embraces architecture/engineering and construction services under a single contract, integrating the roles of designer and constructor. DBIA members include practitioners from all project phases, plus public- and private-sector project owners.

The Pennsylvania chapter is one of 16 nationwide having an impact on the local design and construction community, offering education, sharing of best practices, and legislative efforts.

The Bennett Group specializes in design/build services for retail, medical and religious facilities, as well as project and construction management, architecture, interiors, and construction.

Bannett is a Haddonfield resident.
